SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 49

Senator Traeger offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The harnessing of electric energy more than a century ago brought light to the cities of America; and

WHEREAS, This faithful servant of man also provided the power that gave birth to the greatest industrial society on the face of the earth; and

WHEREAS, The farms and ranches of this country became the bread basket of the world in the early 20th Century without the benefits of dependable electric utility service; and

WHEREAS, On May 11, 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed an executive order creating the Rural Electrification Administration for the purpose of expediting the extension of power lines to rural America; and

WHEREAS, On that date fewer than one in ten rural citizens had access to central station electric service; and

WHEREAS, Today 99 percent of all persons living in rural areas have electric utility service available from nearly 1,000 cooperatives nationwide; and

WHEREAS, This record of success is unrivaled by any other governmental effort in our history; and

WHEREAS, Though the record is one of great accomplishment, the job of the electric cooperative is not done; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 69th Texas Legislature salute the 89 electric cooperative organizations of Texas in this 50th anniversary year of the rural electrification program with thanks for a job well done for the benefit of all citizens of this state through service to almost 950,000 meters over 250,000 miles of line; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the 69th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby designate May 11, 1985, as Rural Electrification Day in Texas; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the governor acknowledge Rural Electrification Day by issuance of an official proclamation recalling the success of this program in Texas and throughout the nation.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Traeger and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted.

GUEST PRESENTED

The President presented the Honorable Bob Poage, former distinguished Member of Congress.

Senator Edwards expressed his appreciation, and that of his district, of Congressman Poage.

Congressman Poage addressed the Senate and members of Rural Electrification Association seated in the gallery.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Congressman Poage presented the President a copy of the book "The Next Greatest Thing."

GUEST PRESENTED

Senator Barrientos was recognized and presented the Capitol Physician for the Day, Dr. Elliot J. Trester of Austin.

The Senate expressed their appreciation to Dr. Trester.

HOUSE BILL 443 ON SECOND READING

On motion of Senator Traeger and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H.B. 443, Relating to the creation of county courts at law in Bexar County.

The bill was read second time.

Senator Kothmann offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H.B. 443 as follows:

(1) Strike Section 2. and substitute the following:

SECTION 2. JURISDICTION. (a) The courts created by this Act have the same jurisdiction of civil and criminal cases as that of the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of Bexar County.

(b) The courts created by this Act do not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business that is within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court retains and shall exercise all ex officio duties of the county judge.

(2) Strike Section 6. and substitute the following:

SECTION 6. COURT OFFICIALS, PERSONNEL, AND FACILITIES. (a) The judge of a court created by this Act shall appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must be well skilled in his profession and have the qualifications prescribed by law for that office. The reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court and serves at the pleasure of the judge. The reporter is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances as the court reporters of the district courts in the county.

(b) The judge of a court created by this Act may appoint a court coordinator or administrative assistant for the court. A court coordinator or administrative assistant performs the duties prescribed by the judge and cooperates with the administrative judges and state agencies for the uniform and efficient operation of the courts and the administration of justice. The court coordinator or administrative assistant is entitled to be paid from county funds the compensation, fees, and allowances that are set by the commissioners court or as otherwise provided by law. This section is cumulative of the provisions of the law that relate to a court administrator's system for county courts with criminal jurisdiction in certain counties.

(c) The criminal district attorney shall attend the courts created by this Act as required by the judges of the courts.

(d) The county clerk serves as the clerk of the courts created by this Act. The county clerk shall appoint a deputy for each county court at law created by this Act. The deputy shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state. The county clerk may require a deputy to furnish bond in an amount, conditioned, and payable as prescribed by law. The deputy shall act in the name of his principal and may perform all official acts that may be performed by the county clerk. The deputy shall attend all sessions of the county court at law to which he is appointed and perform the services in and for the court that are usually performed by the county clerk and his deputies in the county courts of this state. The deputy shall perform any services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the judge of the court. The deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, that may be filed in the county court at law to which he is appointed or that may be transferred to that court from another county court at law of Bexar County, tax, assess, and collect the same fees and costs and in the same manner as provided by law for the county courts of this state and the judges of those courts in similar cases. The clerk and the clerk's deputies shall deposit or pay all fees and costs received in their official capacity as provided by law. A deputy may act for the deputy of any other county court at law of Bexar County when requested to do so by the judges of the county courts at law of Bexar County. A deputy acting for another deputy is not entitled to receive additional compensation. In the event of a vacancy, the county clerk of Bexar County shall immediately appoint another deputy for the court. The annual salary of the deputy appointed for each of the courts created by this Act is the same as the annual salary of the deputies of the other county courts at law of Bexar County. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of county funds. Nothing in this section of this Act alters the duties and powers of the county clerk of Bexar County, except as specifically stated.

The amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Traeger and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.
